Woman's Friend

Nearly all women suffer at times from female ailments. Some women suffer more acutely and more constantly than others. But whether you have little pain or whether you suffer intensely, you should take Wine of Cardui and get relief.

Cardui is a safe, natural medicine, for women, prepared scientifically from harmless vegetable ingredients. It acts easily on the female organs and gives strength and tone to the whole system.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Verna Wallace, of Sanger, Tex., tried Cardui. She writes: "Cardui has done more for me than I can describe. Last spring I was taken with female inflammation and consulted a doctor, but to no avail, so I took Cardui, and inside of three days, I was able to do my housework. Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.

COULDN'T FRANK FRUIT.
Senator Smith, of South Carolina, is chagrined by the Washington postal authorities, who notified him that he must pay postage on a box containing two enormous pineapples. He did not think the fruit worth the price, and had them returned to him.

Senator Taliaferro has for ten weeks been waging a fight to secure higher duties on pineapples. He contended that those produced in Cuba are vastly inferior to the Florida brand. To clinch the argument he had a few barrels of extra sizable pineapples shipped up from his home state and sent a brace to each of his associates.

It turned out that Senator Smith's wife is visiting down in South Carolina, and he was bothered about the disposition of his pineapples. Thinking to agreeably surprise his wife, he bundled the pineapples into a box, had a frank placed thereon and dumped them into the mails. He was just thinking what a nice surprise it would be when along came the notice that a big bunch of postage stamps would be necessary to transport the box and its contents southward.

MOBBED BY WOMEN.

Armed with guns, clubs, stones and other weapons, a score of women prevented 35 laborers from commencing work on a proposed new highway near Washington, Pa., Monday. From 7 o'clock in the morning until late at night the women remained at their posts and not a stroke of work was done by the laborers.

The township road supervisors have sent for a detachment of state police to prevent a possible riot. The trouble began when a contractor appeared at Avella with a gang of workmen to begin work on a road leading from Avella to Independence. Wives of Italians living in the vicinity of the road claim their husbands had been promised the work on the new highway. Other men were given employment and when they were ready for work the band of infuriated women bore down on them and for a while the air was filled with missiles and the laborers dropped picks and shovels and ran to the shelter of a nearby wood. Bloodshed is feared if any further attempt is made by the laborers to resume work. It is stated that the husbands of the infuriated women stand ready to open hostilities.

BLACK HAND INVADERS COURT.

The trial of Joseph Bertucci, an alleged Black Hand murderer, came to a sudden halt, in Judge Winde's court in Chicago yesterday, when an Italian entered the courtroom and waved a handkerchief at Bruno Nardi, the star witness for the state, who had just taken the stand to tell of the murder. The signaling Italian fled from the courtroom after waving the handkerchief and detectives could not find him. Nardi refused to answer any more questions put to him by the prosecutor, saying that he would be killed if he testified against Bertucci. The same fear was expressed by Nardi's wife, also a material witness, and the prosecutor was forced to adjourn the trial. Bertucci and Nardi were arrested after the killing of Vito Umbrello in an alley on January 23. Umbrello is said to have been murdered because of his refusal to heed letters demanding money sent by the two Italians. The evidence in the case is circumstantial, and the state's attorney nonsuited the case against Nardi, expecting to use him as the chief witness against Bertucci.

To City Tax Payers—Notice

Collector's Office, June 14, 1909.
Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1909 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:
"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1909, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of six per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1909, he shall allow a discount of four per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1909, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1910, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."
Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.
Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law. P. F. GORMAN, Jr. 1411
Collector of City Taxes.

To the Owners of Dogs.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 12, 1909.
All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine of $5.00 on the subject of § 33.01 of § 55.01.
JUNE TWENTY-EIGHT, 1909
Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that they pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, and send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.
Attention has been called to this evasion of the law and collector will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out license after trial in the Police Court.
In order to avoid any mistakes, persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.
Attention is called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city, whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that "The Mayor in addition at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation, shall declare that all such dogs as have licenses shall be securely muzzled, and any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle, they shall be seized by the police force, or other persons designated by the Mayor of such purposes, and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed."
FRED J. PAFF, Mayor.
The following is a copy of Section 54 of the license law: "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents." j612126
